any material that was formerly included in the appendix. No new matter is added, since this subject matter was submitted as part of the original application. A substitute specification is enclosed. Applicant respectfully requests that the specification be substituted for the original specification and that the above amendment for "Related Applications" be made after the substitution.

In the Claims:

Kindly cancel claims 1-36 and 40-49 without prejudice.